

CSI247: DATA STRUCTURES

University of Botswana
2026/2027

Course Rules

1. Lectures

- All lectures are compulsory, and attendance will be taken.
- Each student MUST do all exercises added to the lecture notes (and those given out in class) before the next lesson.
- Some of the lectures will be converted to tutorials as and when the need arises

2. Labs

- There will be a weekly 2-hour lab session.
- Each student MUST register for ONLY ONE lab group and remain in that group for the rest of the course/semester.
- All labs are compulsory, and attendance will be taken.
- No other electronic gadgets, except UB lab PC, are allowed during a scheduled lab session.
- The use of AI tools, e.g. ChatGPT, during scheduled lab sessions is strictly prohibited.
- The only material allowed during scheduled lab sessions are the latest lecture notes, prescribed textbook and your CSI247 scribbler/notebook.
- There will be NO MAKE UP tests and quizzes.

3. Course Material

- Handouts will be posted on Moodle. (<http://www.cs.ub.bw/moodle/>)
- Print and bring them to lectures, tutorials and labs.
- All course announcements will be posted on Moodle. It is your responsibility to regularly check announcements and guidelines. We recommend you check at least twice daily. Failure to read an announcement will not be accepted as an excuse for anything.

4. Missing Assessments

- All extenuating cases MUST be reported to the course lecturer not later than 7 calendar days post the assessment date, or resumption of classes by the affected student if the student is away from studies for a lengthy period.
- Reports MUST be submitted from the affected student's UB email address.
- Reports submitted after 7 calendar days will not be considered.
- Missed test/quiz with proven extenuating circumstances (medical and special personal situations) will be scheduled at the next available time.

5. Remark Requests

- Requests for remarking can be made in writing within up to 7 calendar days after the work has been returned.
- Regrettably, late requests will not be considered.

- Requests in person MUST be made during office hours or by prior appointment.
- Exams can only be remarked when official University channels have been followed.

6. Plagiarism

- Plagiarism is a very serious offence and will be checked and awarded a mark of 0 for that work.
- Offenders will be handed over to the University authorities.
- Please familiarize yourself with UB's Revised Academic Honesty Policy for Students disciplinary procedure.

7. How to pass CSI247 smiling

- Always try the problems on your own before asking for assistance.
- DO NOT MISS LECTURES, LABS and TUTORIALS.
- DO NOT VIOLATE COURSE RULES
- Spend at least 2 hours outside class to understand each lecture. Repeat this step until you understand
- Come prepared for the lectures, labs and tutorials. Though labs will be open notes/textbook, some questions require prior experience. Get the experience by doing the next step.
- Execute/complete all class work immediately to make sure you understand the concepts discussed in class before coming to the lab.
- If all fails, we have an open-door policy for students with Data Structures questions. Please bring your work written by you.
- Lastly, as Prof. Toussaint puts it, "think of your brain as another muscle in your body. To get it in shape it requires exercise, exercise and more exercise". To understand concepts covered in the course, you MUST keep practicing them (NOT reading them) at all times.
- According to Dr. William Glasser, we learn
 - 10% of what we read
 - 20% of what we hear
 - 50% of what we read and hear
 - 70% of what we discuss
 - 80% of what we experience personally
 - 95% of what we teach others

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

- ✖ Harms the good reputation of our university
- ✖ Affects your personal integrity
- ✖ Is a barrier to the acquisition of the knowledge, skills and attitudes you would have acquired at the end of your study
- ✖ Decreases your value in the eyes of employers
- ✖ Has a heavy penalty including expulsion from UB

DO NOT CHEAT OR CONDONE CHEATING BY OTHERS
